Academic Advantage Association

“Section 59-65-47. In lieu of the requirements of Section 59-65-40 or Section 59-65-45, parents or guardians may teach their children at home if the instruction is conducted under the auspices of an association for homeschools, which has no fewer than fifty members and meets the requirements of this section. Bona fide membership and continuing compliance with the academic standards of the associations exempts the homeschool from the further requirements of Section 59-65-40 or Section 59-65-45.

The State Department of Education shall conduct annually a review of the association standards to insure that requirements of the association, at a minimum, include:

- a parent must hold at least a high school diploma or a GED;
- the instructional year is at least 180 days;
- curriculum includes, but is not limited to, the basic instructional areas of reading, writing, math, science and social studies, and in grades seven through twelve, composition and literature;
- *educational records must be maintained by the parent

EDUCATIONAL RECORDS

- a plan book, diary, or other record indicating subjects taught and activities in which the student and parent-teacher engage;
- a portfolio of samples of student’s work
- a semi-annual progress report including attendance records and individualized documentation of the student’s academic progress in each of the basic instructional areas specified in item above.

NOTE***

If you are withdrawing your student from a public school, you will have to notify the school district office with a copy of your approval letter and card if they have any further questions have them contact us.

As members you are signing this application stating that the S.C. state requirements according to Section 59-65-47 are being followed for the instructional current instructional year in which you are applying for.
